FOND EMBRACE

Puts an End to a Good Kidnapping Story.

Thursday evening Clarence Miller came to Seymour, secured an automobile and drove to Hayden. There, so the story goes, he quietly put his little daughter, 4 years old, in the machine and returned to this city. Hardly had he arrived in the city, however, before a telephone message came to the police that the little girl had been kidnapped and that the abductor had started toward this city. The police went to the north bound interurban car, and without much difficulty found the man and the child who were preparing to bound the car. The police took them in charge, and according to the directions of the mother, they were held until she arrived. She came to the city about seven o'clock and as soon as she saw the child and the abductor, she gave them a loving embrace and the three went away together.

The abductor proved to be Clarence Miller, the little girl's father and the husband of the frightened woman. The father and mother have not been living together for some time. Mr. Miller has resided in Illinois for several months. Mrs. Miller and her little daughter have returned to Hayden, but the father did not accompany them.

Pythian Sisters.

Valuable Horse Dies.

Fan Fan, the fine Percheron Stallion of T. S. Lett, of Jennings county, died recently from an attack of colic. The horse is one that had taken many premiums throughout this section of the state and for which he recently refused $3,000, but Mr. Lett says, that besides ten others that he had, he has just purchased a fine 2,100 lb black Percheron, as fine as was ever brought to the county.

Street Improvements.

Several places on the brick streets have been repaired within the past few days, and when the work is completed the paved streets will be in good condition. The hole near the B. & O. railroad on Chestnut street was repaired a few days ago and workmen are now leveling the rough places on E. Second street.

Circuit Court News.

The case of August Thias against Nicholas Kelsch, is being tried in the circuit court at Brownstown today. This is a suit for damages which Thias brought against Kelsch, alleging damage done to a clover field. Kelsch rented a farm of Thias and pastured some stock in a clover field which Thias declares he had no right to do, as the clover field was reserved by special contract. The case was tried in the justice court and Thias was allowed $25, whereupon Kelsch appealed the case to the circuit court. Thias is represented by John M. Lewis and Seba A. Barnes, and Kelsch by Thomas M. Honan and U. F. Lewis.

Before a jury in the Clark Circuit Court in Jeffersonville, the damage action of Caleb Burton against Jacob Sapinsky and Julius Sapinsky, doing business under the firm name of J. Sapinsky & Son, of the city of New Albany, went on trial yesterday and had not been completed up to last night. Burton is demanding $10,000 damages on account of personal injuries, alleged to have been sustained on the morning of January 29, 1909, by a sign in front of the store of J. Sapinsky & Son, in New Albany, falling on him. It is claimed two ribs were broken and he suffered other injuries that have made him a permanent cripple.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

Candidates For State Office Are Announcing.

The next republican state convention will have a large field of candidates before it. A dozen or more well known men are aspirants for places on the ticket and some of them are already consulting their friends over the state.

Carl W. Riddick, of Winamac, secretary of the republican state committee the last two campaigns, is a probable candidate for secretary of state. R. G. Tucker, an Indianapolis newspaper man and well known over the state, also has aspirations to be secretary of state.

John Reed, the present deputy auditor-of-state, has an ambition to succeed his chief in that office. Col. E. P. Thayer, of Greensburg, and Gus Greiger of Laporte, are also thinking of entering the race for state auditor. For state treasurer Jonee Monahan is already a candidate and William E. Springer, of Elizabethtown, may get in the race. Jacob Joel, of Crawfordsville, is another candidate for state treasurer and Tom Nugent, of Washington, has been mentioned as a probable candidate for either state treasurer or state auditor.

William Bosson, of Indianapolis, wants to be attorney general, and Edward M. White, a deputy in that office now has like ambitions. W. H. Talbot, of Orleans, has been mentioned for attorney general, but on account of the candidacy of Monahan, he may not get in the race.

W. S. Blatchley is a candidate for state geologist to succeed himself. Horace Ellis, of Vincennes, has announced that he is a candidate for superintendent of public instruction. J. L. Peetz will be a candidate for state statistician to succeed himself and will probably have no opposition.

The terms of Supreme Judges O. H. Montgomery and John V. Hadley expire January 1, 1911. Judge Montgomery, who is serving his first term, will be a candidate for reelection but Judge Hadley will probably retire at the end of his present term, which will conclude his second term on the supreme bench.

The terms of all the appellate judges but Judge D. A. Meyers, of Greensburg, will expire with next year and it is probable that all of them will be candidates for reelection. Those whose terms expire are Judge Frank S. Roby, Judge D. W. Comstock, Judge C. C. Hadley, Judge J. M. Rabb and Judge Ward H. Watson.

Ed V. Fitzpatrick, of Portland, the present clerk of the supreme and appellate courts, will be a candidate to succeed himself and up to date he has no opposition.

Such a field of candidates six months in advance of the state convention shows that the republicans of Indiana have no fears of the result at the polls in 1910.

Auto Threw Gravel.

An automobile belonging to Jos. I. Irwin of Columbus, was being driven down O. & M. avenue a couple of weeks ago when a front wheel picked up a round stone not much larger than a pea and hurled it through one of the large plate glass windows in Mr. Gumble's store. It was sent at the window with such force that the hole made was very similar to what it would have been had a rifle ball gone through. The window was replaced last Saturday.—North Vernon Sun.

Speakers Next Sunday.

Next Sunday, Oct. 10, three representatives of the Anti-Aaloon League will speak in this city. One meeting will be held at Rockford. E. M. Barney, of Indianapolis, was here a few days ago and arranged for these special meetings. Assignments have been made as follows: Rev. R. H. Moore will speak at the First Methodist church at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Edward S. Shumaker will speak at the First Baptist church at 10:30 a. m. and at the same hour Hon. R. C. Minton will speak at the Presbyterian church. At 7:30 p. m. Rev. E. S. Shumaker will speak at the Central Christian church and at the same hour Rev. R. H. Moore will speak at Rockford.

Special meetings like those to be held here are being held from week to week over the state. The purpose is to encourage enforcement of the law. This is a very important matter and appeals to every loyal and obedient citizen of the state. The good and loyal citizen, no matter how he voted at the local option election, is obedient to the law himself and therefore favors law enforcement. If the elimination of the saloon from a community is a bad thing the best way to prove it is to utterly wipe out liquor selling for beverage purposes by a strict enforcement of the law.

New Rock Roads.

Godfrey and Davis road contractors of Redding township, are building a new road from the consolidated school building east of this city to the county line. The connecting road has been used for some time as a private way. The road is being built of crushed rock, which is being shipped into this city. Roads built of rock prove very satisfactory if constructed properly, and will wear much longer than gravel. They are not so easily cut up and after they are well settled are very smooth and level. Rock roads are much more expensive to build than gravel roads, but it is said that they are cheaper considering the total cost as the repairs are much less.

10 cents buys a roaster at the Bee Hive Saturday, Oct. 9.

Play Tomorrow Night.

Do you believe in Santa Claus? This question may be a little out of season, but whether you do or whether you don't you will probably be convinced when "The Gingerbread Man" comes to town, and he is due here at The Majestic Theatre Saturday, Oct. 9, when he and his cohorts will introduce Santa Claus for your favorable inspection. Flanked by a lot of pretty girls, a lot of good music, and some excellent comedians, they will present Sloane & Ranken's pretty musical play for your delectation in a way that should excite your admiration.

Shields Wins Suit.

Special Judge R. W. Mires, this morning rendered his decision in the case of Shields against Dunn in the matter of the North Side street pavings, giving Shields judgment for $880.07 the full amount claimed.

In the case of Ezra Scott against Henry J. Zollman the jury this afternoon rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, giving him $2,214.26, the amount claimed by Scott's attorneys in the argument. The suit grew out of a partnership purchase of land in Louisiana.—Bedford Democrat.

Has Five Hoofs.

Levi Swengle, who lives a few miles northeast of this city, has a driving mare with five hoofs. The fifth hoof appears near the ankle of the right front foot and is in no way different from the other hoofs except that it is a little smaller. It does not interfere in the least with the animal's stepping and has given no trouble whatever. This is the only horse in this part of the country having five feet and attracts much attention every time it is driven into the city.

When down town this evening take a look at the display of articles suitable for fall wedding gifts at T. M. Jackson's jewelry store. o8d.

First Seymour Saloon.

Fifty-six years ago this month the first saloon in Seymour was opened for business. The town had been in existence but a little over a year when James M. Smith decided that a saloon would be a paying proposition. His business however, which was established in October, 1853, was of short duration and was never very satisfactory. He kept his stock in barrels about the room and about a month after he opened up his saloon, some antagonist to the business, bored holes through the floor, into the barrels and his stock in trade made its escape. He never opened up his saloon again and it was several months before another attempt was made.

Next month the licensed saloons in this city go out of business, according to the provisions of the county local law. For over half a century the citizens of Seymour have lived in the environment of the licensed saloon, but as the last liquor license will soon expire, the residents will be afforded an opportunity to judge for themselves the beneficial or detrimental effects of the licensed saloon.

To Keep Eggs Fresh.

The Department of Agriculture has discovered recently that the amount of moisture in the air has much to do with the preservation of eggs placed in cold storage. It was formerly believed that eggs could be kept fresh for a considerable length of time by placing them in a cold storage room, but experience has proven that eggs so kept become stale, and are therefore less valuable. The department of agriculture is now working on an instrument to regulate the amount of moisture as well as the heat. With this instrument cold storage men can record the exact state of the air, and when necessary can change it to suit the prevailing conditions. If this air regulator proves satisfactory eggs can be kept fresh for any length of time.

To Play Moores Hill.

The High school foot ball team will go to Moores Hill to-morrow where they will meet the team of the Moores Hill College. The High school squad will be in charge of Profs. Donaker and Edwards, who have been giving the boys some very valuable points about the game. Several times during the week scrimmage work has been held and the squad is in good shape to go against the collegians. The team work in the last game was not satisfactory to the coaches, but this has been improved, and the team expects to carry off the victory to-morrow.

Dr. James Shields, of Seymour, a former resident of this city, was the guest of friends here recently. The doctor has given up the practice of medicine, but has a son at Seymour who enjoys quite an extensive practice.—North Vernon Sun.

Shave with Berdon, the barber.

Lights Out.

Every user of electric lights in the city has a kick coming. The city has just grounds to complain for the street lights have been out more or less recently. The proprietors of Dreamland and the Nickelo had to close last night and therefore suffered a loss. Last night there was some sort of a break down at the light plant and the operators were helpless until repairs were made. No matter where the fault lies it is very annoying for those depending upon electric light to be without it when they need light most. The failure of the lights has become too frequent and no one regrets the trying conditions more than the local manager who is doing the best he can with a dilapidated plant that is in the hands of a receiver. It is evident that something must be done soon to better the local lighting conditions. The city's contract with the electric light company will soon expire and then what? What the people want is good service and reasonable rates.

Incorporated.

The Louisville, Blue River and French Lick Traction Company filed articles of incorporation in the office of County Recorder Stoy in New Albany Thursday. The incorporators are Jacob H. Fawcett, fifty shares, valued at $5,000; Charles D. Kelso, forty-nine shares, valued at $4,900; Walter A. Gadiant, one share, $100. The articles state that the object is to construct a line of railroad from New Albany through Mooresville, Galena, Greenville, Palmyra, Fredricksburg, Chambersburg, Paoli and West Baden to French Lick Springs, and to acquire other lines of railroad, to erect power plants, etc.

PITTSBURG TURNS TO FORBES FIELD

Business Practically Suspended for Baseball.

Pittsburg, Oct. 7.—Practically abandoning business, Pittsburg has turned its attention to baseball and the world's series games which begin here tomorrow.

The Detroit American League champions arrived here this morning and are indulging in secret practice today on Forbes Field. The Pittsburg team already has put in hours of secret work and will rest until the opening clash tomorrow afternoon.

Through the courtesy of the officials of Greater Pittsburg, Forbes Field is being enlarged to take in a section of Schenley park, a city property. Bleachers are being erected on the park slope, and this in a great measure will eradicate the application of ground rules during the championship games.

Premiums on seats at Friday's and Saturday's games are being offered on the streets today.

St. Louis Enthusiasts Almost Mobbed Discoverer of the North Pole.

St. Louis, Oct. 7.—The appearance of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, polar explorer, and Mrs. Cook in the midway of the Union station here last evening turned a crowd of 10,000 orderly centennial week visitors into a mob, each member of which tried to pat the explorer on the back. The result was a crush in which the explorer, his wife and the reception committee narrowly escaped personal injury.

The cheering for and welcome to Dr. Cook began fifteen miles from the city. He stood on the rear platform of the train and bowed his acknowledgements. Last night he delivered his illustrated lecture at the Coliseum.

Glenn H. Curtis and Francois Ozont are scheduled to make flights in aeroplanes today as a feature of the centennial celebration.

DAILY AND WEEKLY

In Memoriam.

While unpacking the clothes of her son, Fred P. Wolters, who was killed at Montgomery on the 16th of September, this piece was found by the broken hearted mother and sister, of Vallonia, which is published by their request:

Did you ever, gentle reader, listen to the wheels click, click,
While riding in your Pullman car on the smooth and slick?
And did you ever think of those whose courage never fails,
And in whose hands you trust your life—the brave boys of the rails?

Or did you ever think of them while waiting for your train
Of what these poor boys suffer, who, in sunshine or in rain,
Are at their post of duty, ever watchful, ever true,

Who bravely face the danger and bring you safely through?

Perhaps you've never been a fireman on a local freight

And never cut and rode them from early morn till late.

Perhaps you never rode the deck 'mid winter's chilling blast

And had to work the armstrong while the snow was falling fast.

If you have not then dear reader always have for them a smile

And remember they're human too and, like you, have many a mile

Before they see their loved ones which perhaps they will not do

For the hands of death may stop them before their run is through.

So should delays or accidents detain you on your trip

Don't grumble at the trainmen but get your little grip

And get right off and foot it or take an airship for a sail,

Which doubtless would be safer than a life upon the rail.

Fred P. Wolters, son of Mr. and Mrs F. G. Wolters, was born at Sunman, Ind., on the 4th day of March, 1878, and departed this life on the 16th day of September, 1909, at Montgomery at the age of 31 years, 6 months and 12 days.

Dearest Frederick you have left us,
Left us, yes, for evermore.
How we bear the pain and sorrow
God alone does only know.
Heaven now has got our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
But the sunbeams always linger
Where our dearest Frederick sleeps.
From MOTHER, SISTER AND BROTHERS.

Card of Thanks.

LAME EVERY MORNING.

A Bad Back is Always Worse in the Morning. Seymour People are Finding Relief.

A back that aches all day and causes discomfort at night is usually worse in the morning. Makes you feel as if you hadn't slept at all.

Can't cure a bad back until you cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys—makes you feel better, work better, rest better and sleep better.

Permanent cures in Seymour prove the merit of Doan's.

Louis Scheirich, of 317 West Oak street, Seymour, Ind., says: "I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills for a long time. Previous to taking them I suffered from pain across the small of my back accompanied by a weakness that affected me so that I could hardly get about. A friend advised me to procure Doan's Kidney Pills, telling me he had used them with good results. I got a box at C. W. Milhous' drug store and used them according to directions. I noticed great relief from the first and a continuation resulted in a cure. I conscientiously say that Doan's Kidney Pills acted just as represented."

PRESIDENT HAVING A FINE TIME TODAY

Visit to the Yosemite Valley Greatly Enjoyed.

Wauwona, Cal., Oct. 8.—President Taft and party left here at sunrise this morning for the entrance to the Mariposa grove of big trees, eight miles away, where the day is being spent. Yesterday's ride from El Portal to this point included glimpses of Yosemite valley from Inspiration and Artists' points, a pursuit of the tumbling waters of the Merced river into the valley floor, and a winding narrow climb to a height of 7,000 feet at the crest of mountains which shut in the wonders of the Yosemite. The day was cloudless, the air like crystal and everywhere was the exhilarating pines. The president declared that it was one of the most enjoyable days of his life. It was the first glimpse of the Yosemite, and the impressive surroundings, the bracing mountain air, the freedom from speechmaking, all contributed to the pleasure of the first day of roughing it in the Sierras. This outing came just in time, for the president was pretty well tired out when he left San Francisco.

Mr. Taft's constant coach companion is John Muir, the noted naturalist and explorer. Mr. Muir knows the Yosemite and he has ready answers for the innumerable questions the president puts to him. As they passed through the outskirts of the valley the president was saluted by a grizzled old California pioneer, Galen Clark, the first white man to make known the existence of the giant sequoia trees, which the president is inspecting today. Mr. Clark is now more than ninety years old. He lives in the park and has asked to be buried among the trees and mountains he has known so long.

PEARY ATTACKED

A Greenland Clergyman Revives Old Story of Alleged Cruelty.

Copenhagen, Oct. 8.—A Greenland clergyman named Ludwigs, who is a member of the Cape York mission and is acquainted with both Dr. Cook and Commander Peary, has opened a campaign against the latter, reiterating some old allegations as to his ill-treatment of the Eskimos. Among other charges he alleges that Commander Peary once deserted a band of women and children on the ice without food, because they hindered the rapid advance of his expedition.

Some Different Testimony.

Freeport, Me., Oct. 8.—"Commander Peary loved his men and time and time again went out of his way to help them over rough places, doing anything he could to make their lot easier, and the members of his party fairly worshipped him." This was the answer of Prof. Donald B. McMillan of this city, a scientist with the Peary polar party, to a query about intimations that Commander Peary was cold and unsympathetic toward his assistants.

Celebrating Cornstalk's Defeat.

Point Pleasant, W. Va., Oct. 8.—A four days' celebration is in progress here in commemoration of the battle of Point Pleasant, fought 135 years ago, which resulted in a complete victory for the Virginia army of 1,400, under command of General Andrew Lewis, over the combined Shawnee, Delaware, Wyandotte and other Indian forces under Chief Cornstalk.

The month of October is usually one of the finest of the year, and this is no exception.

The man who talks up his own town helps to bring business his way, but when he goes away from home to buy goods that he can get from his next door neighbor he sets a bad example.

The farmer is getting a big price for wheat and corn, hogs and cattle and everything else he has to sell. His prosperity continues and he has the money to pay for everything he buys. He is happy and he ought to be.

DR. COOK is making good as a lecturer and his story is intensely interesting. As he goes about he acts the part of a gentleman. But Peary continues to lower himself in the estimation of the people by his whining and disrespectful manner of speech.

In every city the people want a clean, honest and economical administration and that is what the people of Seymour will get from the men nominated by the republicans. These men will be able to reduce the tax levy and then have plenty of money to run the city. With such men in office the welfare of the people will be closely guarded.

Good Roads Would Help Everybody.

The good roads movement is an economic movement, a thing that somewhere and at some time touches the "pocket nerve" of every producer and every consumer in the land, a factor as indispensable as navigable inland waterways to the fundamental settlement of all freight rate questions. A real and stable macadam highroad between Denver, Kansas City and Chicago, for instance, would be of more benefit to the economic development of Colorado than forty successful appeals to the Interstate commerce commission.

Memminites.

Several Memminites who changed cars here this morning attracted considerable attention because of their unique dress and appearance. They were members of a religious sect in Daviess county, where about seventy-five families live in one community. The Memminites are German by descent, coming from a small town in the province of Bavaria, Germany. They still retain their native tongue, and it is with difficulty that some of them can understand English. One of the religious tenets of the sect requires that they wear few buttons upon their clothing and hooks and eyes are used instead of buttons.

Visiting Old Home.

J. W. Ellis of Dayton, Ky., was in Seymour a short time Thursday, having passed through here in his automobile. Mr. Ellis was formerly a resident of Seymour, but has not visited in this city for some time. He said he saw many improvements in the city which changed the place as he knew it years ago. He met several people he knew while he was here, and enjoyed talking over old times. He has several relatives living in the city. Accompanying Mr. Ellis, were A. B. Bick and W. A. Young, of Bellevue, Ky.

Pyrography Sets at special prices. All the latest hits in sheet music. Watch our window. o9d VAN DE WALLE MUSIC CO.

A Nebraska town has inaugurated lately a very practical type of church union or affiliation. An enterprising lady of the Episcopal faith is the prime mover in the good work. A Roman Catholic altar, permitted by special dispensation of the pope, is fenced in at one end of the church; an Episcopal rail is at the other end, with reversible seats between in the body of the church. Besides the faiths mentioned, Congregationalists and Methodists also use the building, with seats arranged to suit the taste and with sermons delivered from the north or south end, as the case may be. This signifies considerable progress along the line of church union, but somehow or other these good people, with those of other denominations, ought to fix it up somehow so they can all face and march in the same direction. It is this facing in different directions which has been the chief weakness of religious organizations for the past 500 years. Perhaps a better time is at hand.

Good Road Campaign.

The chamber of commerce of Wichita Falls, Tex., has engaged in a campaign of education on good roads subjects. It is sending out speakers with stereopticon exhibits to lecture in county schoolhouses on the advantages of improved roads and to secure signatures to a petition to the county commissioners to call an election to vote on a $100,000 bond issue for the construction of good roads in the precinct or district.

Very Meek.

"Did you trump my ace, dear?" asked Mr. Meekton, who was his wife's partner at whist.

"I did," she rejoined sternly. "What of it?"

"I merely inquired to relieve my mind," he answered, with a gentle smile. "It is a great comfort to know you trumped it. If any one else had trumped it, you know, we should have lost the trick."—Exchange.

A Curious Custom.

The men of the western nations are said to be not exactly fond of their mothers-in-law, but in certain districts of China fathers-in-law are never on speaking terms with their sons' wives. Never after the wedding day does a man see his daughter-in-law's face. If they happen to meet he hides himself. The curious custom comes down from ancient times, and no one really knows its origin, but it is supposed to have arisen from the savage's desire to avoid even the possibility of the father-in-law falling in love with the woman his son had married.

The Circuit Court convened this morning after several days' vacation.

Closed Doors and Windows.

A schoolteacher asked a dreamy-eyed little girl a simple question, but met with no response. The question was repeated, and still the little girl gazed absently out of the window. In righteous indignation the teacher raised her voice and in a severe tone demanded an explanation for such shameful inattention. A dazed look came over the little face, and then the child burst into tears.

When asked why she had not answered at first she said that she had not heard.

"You did not hear me?" repeated the teacher. "Why, I was standing right here beside you."

At this point an older sister raised her hand and said that her sister was hard of hearing at times and could not hear them at home.

With that explanation the teacher understood more than the seeming inattention of the day. She knew why a child who seemed so bright in many ways had proved so often to be hopelessly stupid in her studies.

The child was sent to a specialist and her trouble found to be a simple one easily remedied, with the result that a pupil who had been a constant source of dissatisfaction to her teacher became one of the brightest, most interested children in the class.

It is doubtless too true that many children are not blessed with the mental equipment of others. The mothers and fathers of such children must comfort themselves with the thought that brilliancy is not the only thing to be desired in an individual and be content with what virtues and graces their children possess. But it is surely little enough to ask that parents should satisfy themselves that this is the case before yielding to the inevitable.

The senses have been called the windows of the mind. They are the only means of approach that the individual has to the outside world. Especially is this true of the senses of sight and hearing, and if these be lacking or defective the means of approach is blocked just that much.

No one would expect a person living in a house with barred doors and windows to have much knowledge of happenings on the street, and yet it not infrequently happens that children are called dull because they do not keep up with others who have either seen or heard a third or a half more than they.

The most frequent cases of neglect are of course found among children with only slight defects of sight or hearing. Serious defects are noticeable at once, but a child who misses only a small part of what is going on may be allowed to go for years before this has been noticed.

Week Ends Are Shorter.

It may interest the hostess of today to know that the proper length for the popular week end visit is shorter than it used to be. An invitation for the week end used to mean that a guest was expected to arrive on Friday evening and depart Tuesday morning. Now one goes on Saturday afternoon and returns to town on Monday morning.

Week end entertaining is especially popular with country hostesses, who can hardly ask their town guests to come so far in a single day. The shortened time is without doubt an advantage to both hostess and guest, for, while it signifies no lack of hospitality, it is less of a tax on both.

May Extend The S. I.

That the extension of the Southern Indiana from Blackhawk to Indianapolis may be completed upon the settlement of Walsh's affairs, is believed by many people who are acquainted with the circumstances of the Walsh system. Thursday John W. Walsh, son of John R. Walsh in company with several strangers made a trip over the proposed route, in an automobile and it is supposed the strangers were interested railroad men. Walsh purchased the Southern Indiana with the intention of extending the line into Chicago and later into Indianapolis. The Chicago route was built and is a paying investment. The extension to Indianapolis from Blackhawk was started and part of the road was constructed but the work was suspended when Walsh's financial difficulty arose in 1905. Walsh put about $400,000 in the Indianapolis extension before his troubles came to a crisis. It is hoped by the people along the route that the extension can be finished as it would open up the country and be very beneficial to them.

Championship Series.

The baseball enthusiasts over the country are wide awake today as the first game of the world's championship series will be played at Pittsburg today, when they play the Detroit team. It is estimated that 40,000 people will witness the game. The Detroit people are represented by a delegation composed of over 2,000 "fans" who made the trip especially to witness the game. The opinion as to the outcome of the series is divided and each team has thousands of enthusiastic supporters. The Detroit team has several Indianapolis favorites playing with them and the Hoosiers are giving especial attention on this account.

Time Flies.

Gracious, how time flies! Eighteen years ago tonight the court house records here were fired, and it has been sixteen years since the wholesale murder of the Wratten family in Harrison township, for which Bud Stone was hanged in the state prison at Jeffersonville four minutes after midnight of February 18, 1894.—Washington Herald.

Seymour people distinctly remember the Wratten murder because W. A. Carter's bloodhounds were sent for and tracked down the guilty murderers.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PLEDGE OF ENDURING PEACE

Duly Credited and Highly Honored
Representatives of England and Germany Meeting on Mutually Friendly Ground, Clasp Hands in a Dramatic Climax to a Remarkable Scene of International Fellowship—Admirals
Von Koester and Seymour Certainly Have No Thought of War.

New York, Oct. 8.—The obligation
the new owes to the old world, and the fact that the new is fast paying that debt by its contribution to universal progress, were the keynotes of international compliment exchanged at a

ADMIRAL VON KOESTER.

dinner given to Grand Admiral Von Koester of the German navy by the German, Austrian and Swiss societies
of New York at the Waldorf-Astoria
hotel last night. It was the last of the series of international dinners held
since the vessels of several foreign navies came here for the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Admiral of the Fleet Sir Edward Seymour and Rear Admiral Hamilton,
representing Great Britain, were present as guests of honor. Herman Ridder presided. The speakers included
Sir Edward Seymour, Mayor George B.
McClellan, former Mayor Seth Low,
and Grand Admiral Von Koester, who
in replying to the addresses of welcome, expressed sincere appreciation
of his reception in America.

The evening's exchange of courtesies, compliments and assurances of peace and good will was brought to a dramatic climax by a scene which the diners interpreted as a pledge to enduring peace between England and Germany. Admiral Seymour, one of the last speakers, took occasion to pay
some glowing tributes to Admiral Von Koester. After referring to the Boxer troubles, where he was supported by seven nations, Sir Edward said that his best help came from the Germans,
and added other compliments which stirred the German grand admiral. He rose, bowed deeply and extended his right hand to the Englishman. The two commanders gripped fervently,
and the applause burst in a storm
from every quarter of the room.

When the applause subsided Sir
Edward continued: "As an English-
man, I am anxious to see the English
navy all that it should be. Der Gross admiral is rightly anxious to see the German navy all that it should be. We look admiringly across the North sea
and admire the German sailor, and I think they look over with the same spirit of admiration at us. We are friends."

Remains a Mystery.

Omaha, Oct. 8.—George W. Bowers,
acting general manager of the South
Omaha plant of the Armour Packing
company, who disappeared a month
ago, has been located at Fort Francis, Ontario. The cause of his disappearance from this city remains a mystery.
It is stated that Bowers has tendered
his resignation and that he will not return to this city. Bowers was to have married Miss Daisy Rogers, daughter
of a well-known livestock commission
man, in November.

Great Times at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—The "Hall of Nations" drew thousands of centennial
week visitors and citizens to the Coliseum last night, while an industrial parade yesterday was the feature of the day's program. It was three miles long and told of the progress of St.
Louis. The educational, historical and military pageant today included Dr.
Frederick A. Cook, polar explorer, in an historic coach.

Wanted to Go to Jail.

Cincinnati, Oct. 8.—Confessing that he had made and passed counterfeit money, William B. Pettus, a former school teacher of Carter county, Kentucky, was sentenced by Judge Sater
in the federal court to thirty months
in the Leavenworth (Kan.) prison.
Pettus told the court that he entered the counterfeiting business because he wanted to get into jail "to keep
from starving."

NOT "A BLUFF"

Admiral Dewey Rises in Defense of American Navy.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Admiral George Dewey, defending with characteristic vigor the American navy, asserted
that not only is our navy not a "bluff,"
but that he is confident it would give
a good account of itself should war
ever come.

The admiral's remarks were called forth by a statement attributed to former Representative Landis of Indiana.

ADMIRAL DEWEY.

who, in a recent speech at Cincinnati,
in advocating ship subsidy, is reported to have said that "those Americans who are informed consider our navy
a 'bluff.'"

The expression was characterized by Admiral Dewey as an "unfortunate"
one.

"There will be no war," said Admiral Dewey. "And so long as we go ahead steadily and moderately in adding to our navy, replacing the older
ships with the most modern type, thus
keeping our navy abreast of the world,
no one will ever be able to say, like
Mr. Landis, 'that other nations do not regard the American navy seriously.'"

INTERESTING NEW LAW TO BE TESTED

Race Suicide Landlords At Chicago Must Show Cause.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Race suicide landlords in Chicago must submit to a test
in the courts of a new state law which became effective July 1 last, forbidding
them to refuse rental of apartments
to families with children.

R. P. Longsnecker, a tenant, who was refused renewal of a lease of an apartment because a child had been born to him therein, has brought suit against the landlord under the new
statute, demanding that the landlord
be forced to renew him the lease. The case will be heard in the municipal court Oct. 20.

KEPT HIS SECRET

Mortally Wounded Burglar Refused to Reveal His Identity.

Plymouth, Ind., Oct. 8.—While he,
with three others, was robbing Charles Lemert's store at Teegarden, a burglar giving the probably fictitious name of William Osborne of Indianapolis, was fatally shot.

The Lemert house adjoins the store,
and Mrs. Lemert was aroused by the burglars' movements. She awakened
her husband, who got his revolver and opened the door. As he did so a fourth burglar on guard shouted to the men
to run.

Lemert fired twice as the robbers
ran out. One of the men threw up his hands and cried out that he was shot,
but the other three escaped. When pressed to give his right name, Osborne refused, saying that he would die with his lips sealed. The victim is twenty-nine years old, five feet eight inches in height, and of dark complexion. He wears dark clothes, a soft gray hat and has a mustache.

They "Swapped" Chewing Gum.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 8.—Contract-

old, five years old, who afterward died

same age, is seriously ill and will die,
it is feared. Additional scarlet fever
cases are reported daily and the board
of health has notified business houses
and factories not to receive employees
coming from families where contagion

SAND-CLAY ROADWAY

Methods of an Expert In Constructing It.

NEEDS LITTLE MACHINERY.

Only Tools Necessary Are a Scraper,
Wheeler, Carts and Road Plow.
Sand is the Important Thing—Should Be Clear of Soil.

The father of the sand-clay road in America is the present county supervisor of Richland county, S. C., and he has a reputation for building lasting roadways that is almost national. By his example all the counties of South Carolina have been enabled to undertake the building of good roads. This man is S. H. Owens, and he recently completed one long stretch of thirty
foot wide sand-clay speedway over which I have ridden in a heavy motor-
car at a speed exceeding fifty miles per hour with scarcely a jar of the machine—indeed, with more satisfaction than over many of the very best roads in England and in France over which I have motored.

Convicts are worked in gangs of twenty-five, and they are housed in comfortable tents. The food bill is 12½ cents per day per man. This gives a substantial bill of fare—corn bread,
flour bread, bacon, always vegetables
in season and beef twice a week. This is accomplished by strict economy in management, and the men do not suffer for lack of sufficient food. The striped suits cost $2 per suit, and each
suit lasts from three to four months.
The shoes cost $1.50 per pair and the underwear 75 cents per suit, each lasting about three months. Each squad
of twenty-five convicts has one overseer, four guards and ten head of mules, which are usually fine animals.
The real cost is in the feeding of the

MAKING A SAND-CLAY ROAD.

[From Good Roads Magazine, New York.]
mules, this amounting to about $16
per month per mule. The squad operates one road scraper, costing $250;
one dump wagon to each pair of mules, five "wheeler" (two wheel scraper) and a supply of shovels. No
roller or harrow is used, such implement having been found unnecessary.
The mixing of the sand and the clay
is accomplished by the passage of traffic over the surface. The total cost of construction of one mile of the best
thirty foot wide sand-clay road, taking
all the above items into consideration, is not over $400 per mile as an average. The cost of maintenance does not average over $10 per mile annually
if the repair work is done constantly.
If the season is a rainy one the repair work should be done once a month. A floating gang of two or three men, all that is necessary, is maintained for this purpose. With the two or three men four or five miles a day can be put in perfect condition.

In a personal letter to the writer Mr.
Owens presents the following facts regarding his methods of constructing sand-clay roads:

"As requested, I will give you a short sketch of the sand and clay
roads of Richland county. In January, 1889, I took charge of the roads of Richland county, which were then in deep sand in two-thirds of the county,
the balance being through sticky clay
hills, with the exception of about two miles of macadam road which had proved too expensive for our county to continue to build.

"I commenced covering the sand on the old Camden road with clay to about ten inches in depth. At first the people were displeased. It had rained
a great deal, and they were not accustomed to seeing muddy roads. I continued to throw sand on the clay until
it quit bogging and sticking to the wheels, keeping it crowned with an ordinary road scraper. After I had built a few miles of the road and it became smooth and hard the people were delighted.

"As to the method of building, the first thing to do is to grade the road
and give it a very slight crown, not over two inches to every ten feet from center to ditch. Then the clay should be put on six inches deep, then sand
on the clay as clear of vegetable matter as possible. This keeps down the dust. It depends entirely on the quality of clay as to the necessary amount of sand. If it is pipe clay or chalky kaolin it requires a great deal more sand, which has to be applied after each rain until the clay stops cutting or bogging. The ruts should be kept closed and the proper crown kept on the road with a road machine until it becomes hard. The important thing is the sand. It should be as clear of soil as possible. If the sand is fine
and badly water worn the result is not as good.

"As to the cost, that depends entirely on the haul of the clay. In real genuine sand hills, like portions of Richland county and Lexington, where clay can be found by digging pits on

the hillsides or in the bottoms, it costs
about $400 per mile for a thirty foot road. Where the clay can be found near the roadside and often in the ditches by digging two or three feet
it is very much less.

"Gravel roads are often mistaken
for sand and clay roads. They are as old as macadam, and it does not require the skill and care to build gravel roads that it does those of sand
and clay, especially where the clay
changes from half sand and half clay
and from that to a red, sticky clay
and sometimes a white chalk or stiff pipe clay. It requires close attention in the application of the sand where this is the case. I have had as good results putting sand on clay roads as I have clay on sand.

"As to the durability of the sand and
clay roads, they will last as long as macadam. There are stretches of sand and clay roads in Richland county
where they are level that are in good condition that were built ten years ago, while the macadam road
built to Hyatt's park twelve years ago
was entirely rebuilt last year. I would say my experience is that automobiles improve sand and clay roads. I think the opinion of all road experts is that they damage macadam very much. Since the automobiles are here and more
are coming every day it is absolutely necessary to widen our roads
to at least thirty feet.

"One thing I would like to mention—
that is, in building sand and clay roads
very little machinery is needed. I have never used a roller. All the tools that are necessary are a road scraper,
wheeler, dump wagons or carts and
the road plow. There are no drains.
The crown extends to a 'jaw' at the roadside which carries all the surface water better than a cut drain. Through swampy places the roadbed is raised
and underdrained."—E. J. Watson, Commissioner of Agriculture, Commerce and Industries, in Good Roads Magazine.

GOOD ROADS AND ECONOMY.

Impassable Highways Cost American
Farmers Untold Millions.

There is no difference among well
informed people as to the cost of bad
roads, nor is there any longer a question as to where the burden of the cost is most severely felt. There are hailed over the country roads of the United States every year 265,000,000
tons of produce, equal to 30 per cent
of the railway tonnage of the country. The average haul from farm to railway is 9.4 miles, and the cost per ton per mile is between 23 and 25 cents. In Germany over better roads
the cost is 10 cents per ton per mile
at the maximum and 7 cents per ton
per mile at the minimum. The loss suffered by the American farmer and consumer, figured on the basis of the German wagon road toll, is immense.
If it were saved from year to year
it would soon constitute a fund sufficient to improve all of the common highways of the country.

L. W. Page, who has collected a great deal of valuable information on this subject and who talks about road
improvement intelligently and reasonably, is not among those who clamor
for the federalization of the highways.
On the contrary, he deprecates the all too prevalent idea that nothing can be done in this country until the federal government puts its hand to the wheel or its hand into its pocket.
The states, in his opinion, should take
the initiative or at least prove their sincerity by setting an example for the national government.

NEEDLESS WEARING OF POADS

If Automobile Traffic Would Spread,
Highways Would Last Longer.

A country surveyor protests against
the habit which many motorists have
of doing the majority of their driving
on the crown or center of the road.
This method of driving means that one
portion of the road takes all the wear
and naturally, of course, gets worn
into ruts and ridges.

If the traffic would spread itself and make all that portion of the road from gutter to the top of the crown take a share of the wear, road surfaces would
last much longer and would require less frequent repair. In these days,
when roads are made almost flat, there
is no excuse for this habit of clinging
to the crown, but where roads are made with a great deal of camber it is perhaps excusable, as driving on a continuous slope is the reverse of pleasant.

Let Good Roads Come Quickly.

It is planned by the good roads association of Spokane county, Wash.,
with the co-operation of the state good
roads association, county and township
organizations and property owners
along the route, to build a modern highway, bordered with a continuous
line of shade trees, between Spokane
and Coeur d'Alene. Such a road would be of direct benefit to thousands of people, urban and rural residents alike,
and would also be a valuable object
lesson for the people of the surrounding country, who as time passes are becoming more deeply interested in
the vital subject of good and permanent highways. It is hoped the proposed road will materialize and prove
the wisdom of its construction in such a way as to cause the idea to spread.

Good Roads Mean Money.

The people need to be educated to
the fact that money spent for good roads is not money thrown away,
whereas money spent for makeshift improvements is worse than thrown away.

S.S.S. THE CURE FOR SCROFULA

The usual symptoms of Scrofula are enlarged glands of the neck, sores and ulcers on the body, skin affections, catarrhal troubles, weak eyes, and general poor health. The inherited poison, transmitted through the blood, pollutes and weakens this fluid, and in place of its nutritive qualities fills the circulation with scrofulous matter, which saps the vitality of the entire system. Thousands of children, born with a scrofulous taint, have spent their childhood in constant physical suffering, and grown to manhood or womanhood handicapped by ill health and stunted growth, and perhaps later some disease of the bones or joints developed. S. S. S., given in their early life, would have prevented this. It would have cleansed and purified the blood of the taint, nourished and strengthened their systems, and assisted each to grow into strong, healthful manhood or womanhood. S. S. S. is the very best remedy for Scrofula. It goes down to the bottom of the trouble, and cleanses the circulation of all scrofulous matter. It supplies the weak, diseased blood with strength and health-building qualities, and under the purifying effects of this great remedy all symptoms of Scrofula pass away. S. S. S. contains no minerals in any form, and is an absolutely safe treatment for children, even infants, or persons of any age. Literature about Scrofula and any medical advice free.

BARN BURNER BUSY

A Persistent Firebug Getting in His Work at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—The fire department is annoyed by a firebug who makes a specialty of destroying barns
and incidentally he is causing worry
among the residents in the southeastern part of the city. The citizens recall with anger the many incendiary
fires about two years ago, and they fear a repetition of the crimes if the firebug is not caught. During the series of fires two years ago the police failed to catch the incendiary. One of his characteristics at that time was
to commit his crimes on Friday nights.
There were several alarms during as many Friday nights at that time, and
at each of the fires from one to four barns were destroyed.

Mr. Day revealed the fact that no li-

THEY HAD A GUN IN WAITING FOR HIM

Reprimanded for Playing Cards
These Boys Shoot.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 7.—Ralph Conover, jr., and George Greenleaf were arrested following the murder of Ralph Conover, sr., in the doorway of his house last night, charged with the murder. To the police young Conover admitted that they had plotted to kill his father because of brutal treatment members of the family had received.

The young men had procured an old army musket and hidden it in the yard. When the senior Conover returned home he abused them for playing cards. They ran from the house and when he started to follow, Greenleaf fired the fatal shot.

HEARST FOR MAYOR

Independence Party Displays Continued Activity in New York.

New York, Oct. 7.—Once defeated for mayor of this city by George B. McClellan and later defeated by Charles E. Hughes for governor of the state, William Randolph Hearst was nominated for mayor last night at a mass meeting of 4,000 of his admirers at Cooper Union. This action was taken despite his authoritative statement that he would not be a candidate. Resolutions were adopted directing that a committee of five be appointed to take steps for the naming of an entire city, county and borough ticket, which will be placed in nomination by petition.

WRONGLY JAILED

Tennessee Man Imprisoned Through Federal Officers' Blunder.

Bristol, Tenn., Oct. 7.—After being kept in jail five months, charged with counterfeiting, John Preston has been released on discovery that the alleged bad money is all genuine. The news has just reached here from Abingdon, Va., where he was in jail. A grand jury ordered his release. He was arrested by United States officers.

Respite From Gallows.

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 7.—Governor Swanson has granted a respite until Nov. 19 next to Calvin Johnson, Richard Pines and Eugene Dorsey, the negroes convicted of the murder of Walter F. Schultz, a Chicago artist, who was slain near here March 6 last. Johnson was sentenced to be electrocuted tomorrow, Pines on Oct. 15, and Dorsey on Oct. 22.

Poison in Their Beer.

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 6.—What had fair to be a double poison tragedy was cut in half by the recovery of Mary Webb, housekeeper for Edward Provost, a carpenter of this city, who died of the effects of poisoned beer that both drank. Mrs. Webb, after remaining in a critical condition all day, rallied and was pronounced out of danger. The case is a mystery.

Clarence Lebus Re-Elected.

Winchester, Ky., Oct. 6.—Clarence Lebus of Cynthiana, Ky., will continue as the head of the Kentucky Burley Tobacco Society. At a meeting of the district board held here Lebus was unanimously re-elected president of the society. It was also decided to remove the headquarters from here to Lexington.

"H. H. Rogers," said a New York broker, "always advised young men to get hold of capital. He used to point out to them that without capital a man could do nothing. He used to pack this truth into a very neat epigram.

"'Fortune,' he used to say, 'can't knock at the door of a man who has no house.'"

THE THAW CASE

Now Being Heard by New York Court of Appeals.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Attacking the constitutionality of the act under which Thaw was committed to the Matteawan state hospital for the criminal insane, and the law under which Thaw is being detained in that institution, former Governor Frank S. Black appeared before the court of appeals for Harry K. Thaw.

The case came up on an appeal from an order of the appellate division, affirming an order of Supreme Court Justice Mills of White Plains in dismissing a writ of habeas corpus and refusing to order Thaw's release.

Mr. Black contended that that section of the code under which Supreme Court Justice Dowling ordered Thaw committed was unconstitutional because the commitment was ordered without due process of law. He held that there was no proof that Thaw was insane at the time of his acquittal. "When the verdict of that jury," said Mr. Black in referring to Thaw's acquittal, "was brought in Thaw stood in that court a free and innocent man."

Assistant District Attorney Robert C. Taylor argued that the power exercised by Justice Dowling had been the common law and police power of the state for years and that the justice was guided in his action by the testimony offered at the trial.

DEPOSITS WERE NEVER ENTERED

More Evidences of Peculiar Banking Methods.

Upland, Ind., Oct. 7.—That Charles Cole, president of the wrecked bank at Upland, had committed suicide in Birmingham, Ala., was reported here, but a message from that city says nothing is known there of the reported suicide. However, George Cole says that when his brother Charles left here some time ago his parting words were that he "would settle it all." The father and mother of the Coles are said to be in very feeble health at their home in Fremont, O., as a result of the bank failure here.

Every day new cases of wrongdoing are turning up. Many people deposited many dollars and were never credited with it on the bank's books. A widow, Mrs. Maria Brown, brought in a certificate of deposit for $500 on the old Grant county bank that was organized here years ago. James Johnson has about $5,000 of these certificates. These deposits have never been entered on this bank's books.

DUDLEY BUCK DEAD

Famous Composer Passes Away at His New Jersey Home.

West Orange, N. J., Oct. 7.—Dudley Buck, the organist and composer, died suddenly at the home of his son here yesterday. Mr. Buck was seventy years old. He was born in Hartford, Conn. He composed the cantata sung by 800 voices at the opening of the Centennial at Philadelphia, and became famed as a composer of pastoral music. A widow, two sons, Dr. E. T. Buck, of Indianapolis, and Dudley Buck, jr., of West Orange, and a daughter survive him.

Gary Town Board Under Fire.

Crown Point, Ind., Oct. 7.—The Lake county grand jury is investigating the graft charges made against certain members of the Gary town board and police officers and other law violations, such as gambling and the operations of numerous "blind pigs."

New York, Oct. 7.—F. H. Ross, a bookkeeper, shot himself dead last night as he sat at his desk in the offices of the New Mexico Development company in the financial district. Despondency over the death of his wife and his own ill-health is supposed to have led to the suicide.

THIRTY MINERS DEAD; MANY MORE TRAPPED

Deadly Explosion In Colliery
At Victoria.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 6.—As the result of an explosion at the Extension mine of the Wellington Colliery company, thirty miners are known to be dead. The death list likely will be even larger, as sixty miners were entombed by the explosion, with slight chance of rescue.

The shock was terrific, but its effect was confined to the stope wherein it occurred. All of the men in the other stopes and levels escaped. The rescuers hoped the flames would die down, so as to permit the rescue of the entombed, but their chances seem hopeless.

The explosion was due to fire-damp, the timbers in two levels at once igniting and the fire spreading with great rapidity.

IN TOO BIG A HURRY

Divorcee Was Remarried Before Court Docket Was Signed.

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—Yohanna M. Thompson's joy was so great when a decree of divorce was granted her husband, Edward R. Thompson, by Judge Leathers of superior court No. 2, that she at once proceeded to the office of the county clerk in company with George S. Dougherty, and a marriage license was issued. No time was lost and the two, in company with the bride's husband of a few minutes before, visited Justice of the Peace McKinney and were married. By the quick marriage Mrs. Dougherty had two husbands, as Judge Leathers had not yet signed the docket, which is the legal finishing touch to the divorce.

When Judge Leathers announced that he would grant a decree of divorce, the wife and the man who had been named in the case as co-respondent started for the marriage license counter. Thompson accompanied them and signed the marriage docket as a witness. Judge Leathers said that the divorce was not in effect, and that the former marriage would not be legally dissolved until he had affixed his signature to the docket. His statement from the bench in regard to granting the decree merely amounted to a promise that he would do so, and the parties to the divorce, he said, have no legal right to remarry until the docket is signed.

CREATES SENSATION

Mrs. Krauss Repudiates Confession on Which She Is Serving Life Sentence.

Hartford City, Ind., Oct. 7.—In a cross-complaint to the divorce suit filed by William R. Krauss against his wife, who is serving a life sentence for the poisoning of her stepdaughter, Crystal Krauss, in this city in 1904, Mrs. Krauss declares that the confession of guilt on which she was sentenced was false and that it was her husband who poisoned the girl. She alleges that he drew up the confession and that she signed the same with the understanding that she would be pardoned at the end of two years. The charge has created a great sensation here.

Baseball Manager Fined.

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—The Sunday baseball law is unconstitutional according to a verdict returned by a jury in the criminal court, and Charles C. Carr, manager of the Indianapolis Baseball club, violated the law against following the usual vocation on Sunday when he and his teammates played the national game at Washington park on a Sunday last May. The jury assessed a fine of $1 and costs against the defendant.

ROYAL SPLENDOR

Will Mark the Reception Diaz Is Preparing For Taft.

Mexico City, Oct. 6.—Mexico is preparing to entertain President Taft on a scale of magnificence such as has been seldom witnessed on the North American continent.

That all due honor may be done the executive head of the United States when he comes across the Rio Grande as the guest of President Diaz, orders have been issued which will carry to Ciudad Juarez the historical and celebrated presidential silver and plate, comprising a great portion of the silver and china forming the banquet service of Emperor Maximilian. On Oct. 9 a special train will leave here carrying the banquet service. The set comprises several thousand pieces and is said to compare favorably in richness and splendor with the famed sets of the old world royal families. A special florist and huge quantities of flowers will also be taken.

The carriages to be used by President Diaz and his cabinet have already started for the border. Massive Greco columns are being erected in Juarez along the streets on which Presidents Taft and Diaz are to parade.

The work is being pushed on the Bonito Juarez monument so that General Diaz can lay the cornerstone of the $117,000 shaft to the memory of the man who forced Maximilian from the Mexican throne.

HIS HEART IS STILL IN THE PHILIPPINES

President Homesick At Sight
of Departing Transport.

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—The transport Thomas was setting sail for the Philippines as President Taft was crossing from Oakland to San Francisco, and by the president's request the revenue cutter Golden Gate, on which he was a passenger, was drawn up alongside the big vessel the sides of which were lined with soldiers and the families of officers.

On the bridge of the transport the Philippine constabulary band was drawn up and was playing "Hail to the Chief" as the president shouted across the water to the khaki-clad soldiers:

"Good-by, boys, I wish you a pleasant voyage."

Answering cheers came back to the president, and as the transport started on her voyage again the president looked wistfully toward the Golden Gate.

"Does it make you feel homesick, Mr. President?" asked a member of the president's party.

"Indeed it does," replied Mr. Taft. "I would give anything if I were going with them."

Last night the president was given a banquet at the Fairmont hotel by more than 600 residents of San Francisco, and later was entertained at the Press club. The president retired at midnight at the St. Francis hotel, and left at 8 o'clock this morning for the Yosemite valley.

HE MUST PAY

Saloon Keeper Held Liable for Damages to Widow of Drunken Man.

Indianapolis, Oct. 6.—A judgment for $1,200 damages recovered by Mrs. Lizzie Niehaus against a saloon keeper at Huntington on account of the death of her husband by falling downstairs while intoxicated, has been affirmed by the appellate court. The defendant insisted that he did not know the husband was intoxicated at the time of the sale, but the court said his knowledge made no difference if the man was actually drunk at the time or if he habitually became intoxicated and due notice of that fact had been given.

A Probable Solution.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 6.—The solution of the mysterious inspection of John R. Walsh's southern Indiana road is said to be that instead of J. J. Hill being the probable purchaser the United States Steel company is after the property. The steel people have recently been giving the Southern Indiana all the coal they could and the new field being acquired will be far more contiguous to the Southern Indiana than to the Eastern Illinois.

Shot Himself in Head.

Bloomfield, Ind., Oct. 6.—An unknown man attempted suicide in the courthouse yard by shooting himself twice in the forehead. He talks little and refuses to discuss the shooting or give his name. He is about thirty years old, neatly dressed and has an air of respectability. His collar bore the laundry mark, "W. Carmichael."

REV. SHEPPARD WAS ACQUITTED

Libel Charge Against Missionary Fell Flat.

BEAT BELGIAN GOVERNMENT

Charges Growing Out of an Expose of Alleged Atrocities Against Natives in the Congo Were Not Sustained

When the Libel Suit Against the Rev. W. H. Sheppard Was Brought to Trial—Suit Was Considered as Practically One by Government Against Missionaries.

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo, Oct. 6.—An American missionary, the Rev. W. H. Sheppard, has been acquitted of the charges of libel brought against him by one of the Congo concession companies which has a monopoly of rubber gathering in the Kasai region.

Two American missionaries, W. H. Sheppard and the Rev. William Morrison, were charged with "calumnious denunciation" and libel by the concession company referred to in the above dispatch. The suit was based on an article which appeared in the Kasai Herald. The charges against Mr. Morrison, however, were withdrawn. The company sought to recover $5,000 from Mr. Sheppard.

In substance the charges made by the missionaries were that Congo officials levy upon the natives oppressive taxes to be paid in rubber; that whole villages, including women and children, are impressed by the soldiers for gathering the rubber; that they often are compelled to travel many miles to the rubber forests and to sleep there for more than a week under unhealthy conditions; that they are cruelly punished for failure to meet the taxes imposed, and that so large a proportion of their time is taken for gathering these taxes that they are unable to cultivate crops and raise food necessary for their support.

The Belgian government holds half the stock of the Kasai company, and a majority of the company directors are Belgian officials, so that the suit has been considered as practically one by the Belgian government against the missionaries.

STATE FAIR SPECIAL IN DEADLY COLLISION

Four Killed In Wreck Near Farmer City, Ill.

Farmer City, Ill., Oct. 6.—Three miles south of here last night, in a collision between the state fair special from Springfield and a southbound passenger train on the Illinois Central, four persons were killed and thirty injured, several fatally.

The wreck occurred on a curve, while the trains were running at a high rate of speed, and the trains came together with terrific impact. The northbound train was heavily loaded with visitors returning home from the state fair at Springfield. The southbound train, which left Farmer City at 9 p. m., was crowded with delegates to the Sunday school convention which concluded its session at Farmer City last night. The train consisted of engine and three cars. Misconstruction of orders caused the wreck. Engineers of both trains jumped and escaped death.

Opening Game of Championship Series In Progress.

THE ODDS FAVOR PITTSBURG

While Both the "Tigers" and the "Pirates" Are Confident of the Outcome, It Is Notable That the Dopesters Are Laying Odds of Two to One, With the Pittsburgh Nationals as Favorites—A Crowd of More Than 35,000 Persons Is Witnessing the Opening Game at Pittsburgh This Afternoon.

Pittsburg, Oct. 8.—The American League champions, Detroit, and Pittsburgh, the winners of the National League pennant, met here this afternoon in the opening game of the series which will decide the baseball championship of the world for 1909. This is Detroit's third attempt in as many years to win the greatest honors in organized baseball, as Hughey Jennings's champions have been defeated by the Chicago Nationals in the last two world's series. Pittsburgh has not had an opportunity for contesting for the world's championship since 1903, when it won the National League pennant and was defeated by the Boston Americans in the big series.

A record-breaking crowd has gathered at Forbes Field for the initial game of the contest. Every reserved seat of the 18,000 had been engaged for days and thousands more enthusiasts were compelled to engage in a wild scramble for the other spaces in the immense amphitheater, many being turned away. No fewer than 35,000 persons are witnessing the first game.

Both teams are determined to win the opening game, as the winner of the first engagement in the last four world's series has captured the championship. As a result both Managers Fred Clarke and Hughey Jennings have sent the men they consider their strongest at present to do the pitching. Jennings is using George Mullin, his husky and reliable veteran, while Clarke is utilizing Charles Adams, the man who came from the Louisville American association team at the beginning of this season, and made a phenomenal record with Pittsburgh.

Schmidt is doing the backstopping for Detroit, while Gibson, the reliable, is behind the bat for the National League champions. Frank O'Loughlin of the American League and J. E. Johnstone of the National League are serving as umpires.

The regular line-up of both teams is on the field today, and the team that loses will have few excuses to offer, as every man is in excellent condition. The game started at 2 o'clock, Eastern time. Ticket scalping is notable by its absence, and only a few scattered sales of tickets at advanced prices have been reported. Chairman Garry Herrmann of the national commission said that with the co-operation of the Pittsburgh club and the city authorities, the commission had been able to reduce the scalping evil to a minimum.

The prevailing odds are 2 to 1, with Pittsburgh the favorite, but little betting is being done because of the absence of Detroit money. Many wagers are being made that Hans Wagner will outbat Ty Cobb, and this is considered an even-money proposition.

Chairman Herrmann of the national commission, B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, and President John Heydler of the National League are all present. An important meeting of the national commission is scheduled for this evening, and according to Mr. Herrmann, the Pfeffer case will be re-opened and some decisive action taken.

JUMPED ON TO BRAYTON

Democrats of Rhode Island Adopt Denunciatory Resolutions.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 8.—A lengthy arraignment of General Charles R. Brayton, the Rhode Island Republican national committeeman, and a denunciation of his alleged influence on the politics of the state occupied the greater part of the platform adopted by the Democratic state convention held here. The platform also declared that the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill was "the most outrageously unfair tariff ever enacted by an American congress," demanded the election of United States senators by popular vote, and declared in favor of a federal income tax. Olney Arnold of Providence was nominated for governor.

Drowned Herself in Quarry Pond. Elgin, Ill., Oct. 8.—Clothing herself in her best garments and putting on her most expensive jewelry, Mrs. Anna Understein, wife of Arthur Understein, a Chicago salesman, committed suicide by drowning in a stone quarry at Batavia. SAYS IT'S REVENGE

W. R. Krauss Talks of Wife's Sensational Charge.

Hartford City, Ind., Oct. 8.—Much interest is still expressed in this community over the sensation precipitated by the action of W. P. Krauss in filing a suit for divorce from his wife, Rae A. Krauss, who is serving a life sentence in the women's state prison at Indianapolis for the murder of her stepdaughter, Crystal Krauss, and the subsequent cross-complaint in which the self-confessed murderess directly charges her husband with killing his own daughter.

Recently William R. Krauss attempted to secure his wife's signature to a deed to the Krauss home in this city, and she refused to sign the document. He then resolved to divorce her and thus remove the necessity of gaining her consent to the transfer of the property.

William R. Krauss has made this statement: "I realize now that I should have begun action for divorce long ago, but my affection for my wife in her trouble was too strong. I loved her, and did until today. Now I intend to press that suit. I do not intend to let any murderess stand in the way of my disposing of my property. This is exactly what this is all about, and added to it she is seeking revenge. I shall easily clear my name of the cloud that now hangs over it."

ORDERED VILLAGERS TO PUT OUT LIGHTS

Kentucky Night Riders Demand
Darkness En Route.

Cynthiana, Ky., Oct. 8.—On a mysterious mission through Harrison and Robertson counties, twenty-five night riders ordered the citizens of the little town of Claysville, Harrison county, to extinguish all their lights. They halted at the edge of the town and communicated the order, which was promptly obeyed.

Through the darkened city the riders then passed about midnight, and those daring enough to peep at the band saw that they carried white horse blankets. Where they went is unknown, but they returned through Claysville early in the morning and disappeared in the direction of this city.

UPHELD BY THE SUPREME COURT

Indiana Saloon Keepers Bound
By Local Ordinances.

IMPORTANT CASE IN POINT

A Local Ordinance of the City of Delphi Regulating Rear and Side Doors and Screens in Saloons Is Upheld by a Decision of the State's Highest Court Just Handed Down—The Statute, It Is Held, Expressly Grants Authority to Pass Such Ordinances.

Indianapolis, Oct. 8.—The supreme court has just held that a city has power by ordinance to forbid rear and side entrances to saloons and to forbid any screens at the door and windows when persons are drinking inside. An ordinance of the city of Delphi, which prohibited any entrance to a liquor saloon except by the front door, and prescribed the interior arrangement of the room, was sustained.

Delphi is in Carroll county, which voted "wet" at a county option election. The city ordinance provided that any room used as a saloon shall be one single room without rear or side doors, inside stairways leading to upper rooms, or elevators of any kind or character, and shall at all times be free from screens. John Hamling was charged with maintaining screens and blinds at his doors and windows during the hours when his saloon was open for business, and it was also charged that there was a side door in said room which was an entrance from said room into a pool and billiard room.

A defense on the ground that observance of the ordinance would ruin Hamling's business is disposed of by the statement of the court that the effect it may have on a particular business cannot be considered in determining the validity of an ordinance. It was also urged that the ordinance is void as being unreasonable, but the court said that Section 8655, Burns 1908, expressly grants authority to pass it.

CREATED SENSATION

Kokomo Man Slays Wife in Crowded
Department Store.

Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 8.—William Robison, learning that he was to be sued for divorce, shot and killed his wife, Jennie Robison, in the Thaiman & Levi department store, on the twenty-first anniversary of their wedding.

The Robisons met in the store. "Is it true you intend to bring suit for divorce?" Robison demanded of his wife.

"You have heard the truth and I mean it," she replied.

Without another word Robison drew a revolver and in the presence of a score of customers and clerks, fired twice at his wife's breast. As the woman fell he fired twice again, the bullets narrowly missing several spectators.

Robison was at once taken into custody. The prisoner appeared dazed. "Those Bowmans have driven me crazy," he said, referring to his wife's relatives. "I guess I am crazy." He nearly collapsed before he was placed in a cell.

He Finally Surrendered.

Columbus, O., Oct. 8.—Al Weingardner, aged thirty-five, a laborer at West Jefferson, near here, twice shot his wife, because she had sued him for divorce, and then engaged in a running fight with two village marshals. Fourteen shots were exchanged. Weingardner, wounded in the leg, finally surrendered. Mrs. Weingardner is in a serious condition.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER

No Motive Known For Crime at Benton Harbor.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 8.—It has been settled that the man whose body was found near the Pere Marquette tracks here with a bullet hole near the heart, was T. O. Morgan, thirty-three years old, of Hammond, Ind. Morgan had been working as a stevedore for some weeks on the docks here. A stranger was seen running from the place where Morgan's body was found. This man is presumed to have been a companion of Morgan, and it is suspected he committed the murder, as he has not been seen since.

The murdered man had no money, and the authorities are at a loss to assign a motive for the crime.

"Drug Trust" Opponent Dead.

Indianapolis, Oct. 8.—Julius D. Pearson, fifty-one years old, who became one of the best known drug dealers in Indianapolis during a career of twenty years when he opposed the "drug trust," is dead. Death was due directly to cerebral hemorrhage. Since last Monday morning, when he fell on the sidewalk near Pine and Washington, Mr. Pearson had been unconscious despite the efforts of physicians who sought to bring about a rally following the hemorrhage.
